

SYNTHESIS OF SENTENCES

CLASS IX

ASSIGNMENT

Join the sentences without using 'and', 'but' or 'so'.

1. He was ill. He wanted to leave.
2. I saw a man. He was lying by the roadside.
3. He was very old. He could not eat hard food.
4. I saw a lion. It was wounded.
5. I went to Delhi. I wanted to see the Taj Mahal.
6. He had resolved a certain course. He worked with vigour.
7. He got great honour. He saved the life of the king.
8. She stood there for hours. She did not move.
9. He set traps every night. He cleared his house of rats.
10. The team has a captain. He leads other team members.
11. You must give me the keys of the safe. You will be able to save your life.
12. He has to support his family. He works hard for that reason.
13. She ran out of the room. She was screaming.
14. The man was disturbed. He fell down.
15. The boys were terrified. They stood trembling.
16. He felt happy. He threw a party.
17. They hoisted the flag. They saw national anthem.
18. She drove quickly. She reached on time.
19. It rained hard. It flooded heavily.
20. I was impressed by the team. I decided to stay for the match.
21. She was pleased with her present. She gave her hug.
22. The lighting flashed vividly. It struck the church.
23. He must apologise. He will not escape the punishment otherwise.
24. She will win the prize. She deserves it.
25. The minister was wise. The king did not trust him.
26. There was heavy traffic. The streets were jammed.
27. The man had a broken leg. He sailed across the ocean.
28. He was correct. He refused to accept the offer.
29. I heard you won the prize. I am extremely delighted.
30. She asked me a question. I was unable to answer it.