

CLASS IX
ASSIGNMENT

James Bond _____ (need) a drink. The fight in the car park with the dwarf _____ (make) him thirsty. He walked quickly along 46th Street in search of an air-conditioned bar where he could get out of the heat and think.

He _____ (walk) for only a few minutes, when it suddenly _____ (occur) to him that he _____ (follow). There was no evidence for it except for a slight itchy feeling on the top of his head. But he had faith in his sixth sense. It _____ (never / fail) him. He _____ (stop) in front of the shop window he _____ (pass) and _____ (look) casually back along the street. He _____ (examine) the Swiss watches in the window and then (turn) and walked on.

After a few yards he turned into a shop doorway where a man _____ (look) at Japanese cameras. As he did so, something grabbed his right arm and a voice snarled, 'All right, Limey*. Take it easy unless you want lead for lunch.', He _____ (feel) something press into his back just above his kidneys. Bond _____ (try) to swing his arm to hit whoever it was that _____ (hold) him, but a strong hand _____ (catch) his fist. An amused voice _____ , (say) "No good, James. The angels have got you."

He turned his head to find himself looking into the grinning hawk-like face of Felix Leiter. A face he _____ (last / see) covered in bandages in a hospital bed in Cairo nine months earlier. The face of the American secret agent with whom he _____ (share) so many adventures.

1. She is so irritating; she always thinks she is right _____ everything.
2. I am keen _____ paragliding - I go every Sunday, rain or shine.
3. She goes weak _____ the knees every time her boyfriend comes into the room.
4. I am safe _____ danger in my house - I hope.
5. She is very quick _____ Maths.
6. It is never a good idea to be rude _____ other people.
7. She is jealous _____ her little sister.
8. My teacher is always patient _____ me.
9. Is there sufficient cake _____ everyone?
10. He is right _____ thinking that the earth is round.